THE ISSUE OF THE CANVASS.

Nothing is truer than that the coming canvass will be one of principle. The Democratic party approaches it with no derelictions from true republicanism in the past, and no disposition, should it triumph, to venture on such derelictions in the future. Whatever there is in the constitutional history of the Anglo-Saxon race that men have thought worth while struggling for, and by struggling for have obtained, it is now the aim of this party to perpetuate and maintain. Leaving out of view the principle of religious toleration, and even that, as might be shown, has not been unassailed, almost every fundamental canon of government dear to those who speak the English tongue, is now in danger. The differences on which this canvass is to be contested, are not differences subordinate to and, as it were, inside of the Constitution, but amount in their ultimate analysis to a contest for, and a contest against that Constitution.—The Democratic party is now, as it always has been, the party favoring an adherence to the Constitution, and this not because it happens to be known by that particular name or was framed by wise and good men, our fathers, but because in it are the results of centuries of ceaseless discussion and the proven conditions and guarantees of popular well-being. The central idea of Magna Charta, that no man be tried save by his peers, and only by them on the law of the land, is in the Constitution. And so, also, is the doctrine in John Hampden's case, that representation must go hand in hand with taxation; and the point settled in the times of James II., that no power, in a free government, could of right suspend the laws; and the other rights, finally wrenched from authority, of free speech and a free press.—crystalized in our Constitution are the long results of time, asserted in parliaments, wrought out on fields of battle, and sanctified by the blood of the wise and the good and the brave. How potent they have been for good we know, for we know it was never until these principles were covertly sneered at and the instrument containing them contemned, that we began to repeat the lamentable experiences of other people, and to feel and see with our own hands and eyes the miserable evils of national debt and civil war. Feeling that these evils have come upon us, and in the recollection of the one and the burdens of the other are even now weighing heavily upon us because we have turned our backs upon the Constitution, there is a party in this country, the Democratic party, which proposes to return to the Constitution and thereby to mitigate the inevitable present results of the past, and to provide sternly against the possibility of any recurrence of those ills in all time to come.

Opposed to this party which stands by the Constitution, and in whose ranks, if alive to-day, Washington and Jefferson and Adams and all men who have loved good government and hated a shifting tyranny would find their place, there is arrayed another party which professes to be wiser than the wisdom of the last eight Saxon centuries, and erects in opposition to the fixed and known Constitution a glittering tissue of impalpable phrases and hazy ideas. In the ranks of this party, if alive to-day, Robespierre and Praise-God Barebones and all men who have been known only for their ability to tear and to rend and destroy, would be found. It is the party of restlessness, and it is well written, unstable as water thou shalt not excel. Its sole principle seems to be that whatever is, is wrong, and its sole mission, as its works heretofore have shown it, is to tear up the landmarks of society, and break down every one of those distinctions Divine wisdom has instituted and human wisdom approved. There is not a lack-wit, or crack-brain, or crazy enthusiast in this debt-ridden country, of any age or hue of either sex, but is found with this party. It is a grand army of wretched actualities and resplendent impossibilities which comes before the great mass of the American people, who are conscious that there is something wrong, but have not as yet made up their minds how to right it, and ask them to commit the guidance of the matter into its hands. On the other side stands the party of fixed and written law, the Democratic party, which in all its long and glorious administration never had any more serious troubles than a squabble about the tariff or a Kansas raid, and between these two it is for the great bulk to choose. If wild Fifth Monarchy ideas of polity, if extravagant frauds in public money, if grinding taxes, if a supersedure of the Constitution for which our dead died from Lexington to Gettysburg be the things wished for, the Radical party has them all; but if the matter most of all to be desired is a return to ancient peacefulness by a return to ancient principles, the Democratic party leads the way.

UNEQUAL LAWS.

The Carl Schurz resolution at Chicago adopts "the immortal principles of the Declaration of Independence," of which the foremost sets forth the rightful equality of men before the law.

The second Chicago resolution is a flat denial of equality.—The Northern white, it says, may deny suffrage to the black. The Southern white shall not. This is equality!

The Northern white, it says, shall distribute suffrage as he pleases, each State probably controlling its own distribution. The Southern white shall not distribute suffrage. Congress has usurped the power from each State and will maintain its usurpation.—This is equality!

Wholesale disfranchisement of whites has been worked at the South by the laws of Congress. But nobody has been disfranchised who would vote to keep Radicals in power. This is equality!

One law for the North, another law for the South on the same subject. This is equality!

No negro suffrage at the North, where it has been uniformly rejected by the people for themselves. Wholesale negro suffrage at the South, where it is uniformly dreaded. This is equality!

No negro suffrage at the North, where so few are the negroes that their ignorance could do but little harm through the ballot. Wholesale negro suffrage at the South, where the negroes are half or nearly half the population, and where their ignorance working through the ballot may and must do its utmost harm. This is equality!

Gratitude demands this, say the Chicago Radicals, yet a larger proportion of Northern blacks fought in the war than of the Southern blacks. The Northern black is denied the suffrage. The Southern black has it thrust upon him. This is equality!

Gratitude demands this, say the Chicago Radicals—but gratitude to whom and for what? Gratitude to the millions of Southern blacks who helped the rebellion to the last hour of its life, who had not pluck enough to strike a blow themselves for freedom, but now have freedom's highest privilege thrust upon them! Gratitude to the few thousand Northern blacks who fought the rebellion, but to whom suffrage is denied? This is equality.

Senator Doolittle proposed an amendment to the last Reconstruction bill giving a ballot to every black soldier, proportioning gratitude thus to service. The Radical Senate rejected it, for that was equality.

The Chicago platform is a splintered chip which Carl Schurz cannot nail on the grand old Declaration of Independence.—N. Y. World.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE

OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE WAR,

ITS CAUSES, CHARACTER, CONDUCT AND RESULTS.

By HON. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

A BOOK FOR ALL SECTIONS AND ALL PARTIES.

THIS GREAT WORK PRESENTS THE ONLY complete and impartial analysis of the causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfeited with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, we promise a change of fare both agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order. The Great American War has AT LAST found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment which truth and justice so urgently demand.

The intense desire everywhere manifested to obtain this work, its official character and ready sale, combined with an increased commission, make it the best subscription book ever published.

One Agent in Easton, Pa., reports 72 subscribers in three days.

One in Boston, Mass., 103 subscribers in four days.

One in Memphis, Tenn., 106 subscribers in five days.

Send for Circulars and see our terms, and a full description of the work, with Press notices of advance sheets, &c. Address

DESTITUTION IN NORTH CAROLINA.

We observe that persons are representing to the Northern people an alarming state of destitution among the people of Onslow, Carteret, Craven, Beaufort, Rockingham and other counties in this State. We have no doubt, that there is not a county in the State, where some persons cannot be found, who are reduced to poverty and suffering. It could not be otherwise after the heavy losses our people have sustained, their great indebtedness, the exceedingly short crops which have been produced in the State since the war closed, and the large numbers of aged, infirm persons and helpless children which have been turned adrift without a provider, and the numbers of persons who are able to work, but who are unwilling to do so on such terms and under such restraints as employers are compelled to give and exact or be ruined themselves, so long as they can barely live on the charity of the government or the people.

In several counties this state of destitution must be great. In Wake and adjoining counties, many are suffering, as is indicated by the large numbers which daily throng the office of the Freedman's Bureau in this city.

But it seems to us, that to guard the public against imposition, these representations of destitution should be made public by some organized Association or by the Magistracy of the counties where it exists or, by those officers who are especially entrusted with the care of the poor, and that the contributions for their relief should be placed in the hands of persons known to the public and in some sort responsible, at least to public opinion for their proper distribution. We would not by any means dam up the streams of benevolence in this direction, but when the public make contributions to aid the suffering, they ought to have some proper assurance that they will be properly applied.

MR. STANTON.

This man has been a serious impediment to the settlement of the difficulties of the country. Before the war, he aided its bringing on by his counsel and course; during the war his despotic will, and his treatment of many of the officers of the army, made him the object of hatred, and since the war his course has been prompted by mischief and inordinate hatred to the Southern people. He has been a chief hindrance to the President and the plotter of trouble in the councils of the nation. His resignation comes at least three years too late for the peace and future well being of the country, yet it is better late than never. The following is his queer letter to the President, on surrendering the War Office:

"WAR DEPARTMENT,
"WASHINGTON CITY, May 26, 1868.

"SIR,—The resolution of the Senate of the United States of the 21st. of February last declaring that the President has no power to remove the Secretary of War and designate any other officer to perform the duties of that office ad interim, having this day failed to be supported by two-thirds of the Senators present and voting on the articles of impeachment preferred against you by the House of Representatives, I have relinquished charge of the War Department, and have left the same and the books, archives, papers, and property in my custody as Secretary of War in care of Brevet Major General Townsend, the senior assistant adjutant-general, subject to your direction.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
"Secretary of War.

"To the President."

WHAT A RADICAL SAYS.—During the debate in the House of Representatives, Monday, on the efforts of Butler to get up additional evidence to convict the President:

"Mr. Baker, (Radical,) of Illinois, remarked that he was impelled by duty to say one word. In his opinion it was a violation of public justice, where the object was to make an inquest of improper conduct or corruption in regard to a high State trial, to deposit the power in the hands of only one party. He declared in his place his profound conviction that it was a violation of the instincts of the Anglo-Saxon heart and of Anglo-Saxon liberty. He wanted corruption exposed and ferreted out, and brought to the light of day. This investigation, as long as any inculpation existed, should be carried on. But here in his place, even if it brought him in opposition to his party friends, he protested against an ex parte inquest into a great public transaction. [Applause on the Democratic side.]

We are pleased to state that Mr. Baker has shown recently, on several occasions, that his devotion to party does not entirely blind his judgment and obliterate his sense of moral obligation, and what is due to those who are opposed to him in politics.

The fact that Mr. Baker is the only Radical in the House capable of acting thus honorably, ought to fix in the public mind utter scorn and indignation against the Radical party, and ought to determine every honest man in the country, to exert himself to hurl them from power as soon as possible.

PROFITABLE FARMING.—A gentleman on the south side of James River made last year a crop of tobacco, with his own labor, that of an old colored man and one horse, which was sold a day or two since by his commission merchant, at the Tobacco Exchange, for twenty five hundred dollars. The tobacco was of fine quality.—Richmond Enquirer.

The above shows what industry and skill will do. Our people need not fear starvation and utter pecuniary ruin if their troubles will drive them to the exercise of proper skill, enterprise and industry.

THE ISSUES OF THE CANVASS.—We ask the attention of the reader to the able article on the first page of to-day's issue taken from that able Democratic paper, the New York World, with the foregoing title.

THE RIGHT KIND OF TALK.

Mr. A. H. H. Stuart, in a letter to John T. Stewart, of Illinois, says the democracy in Virginia would readily accept Pendleton as the candidate for the Presidency, but will stand by the choice of the Convention, leaving the matter mainly in the hands of the Northern democracy.

We think we can say, that the above views correspond precisely with the views held by the Democrats and Conservatives of North Carolina. They will not be forward in the National Democratic Convention in expressing their preferences. Perhaps, Gen. Hancock, because of his high regard for the Constitution, and for law, and for order, and for the rights of individuals, as evinced in his administration as District Commander of Louisiana and Texas, has a stronger hold upon the feelings of the white people of North Carolina, than any other man prominently named for the Presidency, but they will heartily acquiesce in and support the nominees of the National Democratic Convention to meet in New York, the 4th of July next. They want honest men, men capable of administering the government according to the Constitution, who are sound on the great questions at issue, and free from the corruptions and fanaticism of Radicalism. That is all they require.

THE CANVASS IN VIRGINIA.

The canvass on the new Constitution of Virginia opens vigorously in that State.—Her leading and substantial men have rolled up their sleeves and gone into the fight with great ardor and ability and with strong hopes of success. The denunciation of the new Constitution by Gen. Schofield will we trust, give the Conservatives the vantage ground. We trust the land of Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe and Marshall will never be surrendered to the control of scallawags and ignorant blacks.

RUMORED CHANGES IN THE CABINET.

It is believed that Gen. Schofield's nomination as Secretary of War will be confirmed by the Senate. It is understood that General Grant approves it but Senator Sumner does not. In the meantime the President will make no arrangements to supply the place until the Senate confirms or rejects it.

It is also understood that Messrs. Seward and Randall desire to retire from their positions in the Cabinet.

Mr. Chanler, a Democratic member of the lower House of Congress, with a view of testing the Radicals, offered the following resolution, which was referred to a Committee on Monday, in order to get rid of it:

"Resolved, That all inhabitants of any State or Territory of the United States other than the people aforesaid, who may now or hereafter, exercise the right of suffrage, do so on sufferance, under the franchise granted by the white race, who may lawfully hereafter, for good cause shown at any time, revoke the privilege or privileges so granted to the mixed races of African or Asiatic descent."

GOV. VANCE.—The reader need not be invited to notice the article from the Wilmington Journal, and the characteristic letter from Gov. Vance, in reply to the slanderous insinuations and statements of an anonymous correspondent of the New York Globe. The character of Gov. Vance with true North Carolinians and true men everywhere, is a bulwark against the tongue of calumny.

A HOPEFUL SIGN.

A gentleman who is connected with the Banking and Currency Bureau returned here Saturday from a business trip in the West, and reports the Republican party badly divided. In Cincinnati he found all the leading Republicans indignant at the assaults which had been made upon Chief Justice Chase, and many of them openly declared their purpose to sustain the Conservative ticket regardless of who might be the nominee in the New York Convention. They said they agreed fully with the Chief Justice that the time had come for all lovers of constitutional liberty to band together against the Jacobins.—Wash. Letter to Balt. Gazette.

RECONSTRUCTION.—The general question of bringing in the Southern States has been a good deal debated among Republicans for the last three or four days. General Grant and Mr. Colfax both favor the speedy admission of such as have complied with the reconstruction acts, and can present acceptable Constitutions. There are some persons, however, who profess to believe that the true interest of the Republican party will best be subserved by deliberate action in this matter.

The unanimity with which restoration bills have been put through the House may, it is believed, be taken as a general indication of the feeling in the Senate. It seems pretty certain that the Senate will finally agree with the House in ordering a new election in Alabama, but that the other reconstructed States will be admitted before July.—New York Times.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. The Negro Vote.—A Washington letter to the Louisville Journal says that when the Democratic National Convention meets July 4th, a resolution will be offered by some of the Northern delegates to the effect that the party pledges itself to resist the counting of any electoral votes determined by the admission of negro States; that the attempt by the Radicals to secure power in that manner by defrauding the people of their inherent liberties in the selection of a President will be resisted if necessary, with armed force, and that the legally elected President of the white race shall be inaugurated if it requires even a million of bayonets to install him in the White House.

A letter has been received from General McClellan in reply to one from a friend asking permission to present his name for nomination at the 4th. of July Convention. The General earnestly begs that this shall not be done, and supports the request with patriotic reasons, creditable alike to his head and heart. He urges the nomination of a new man—a statesman who will command the respect, admiration and enthusiastic support of the combined anti-Radical elements of the whole country, and pledges himself, as soon as the nomination is made, to come home and canvass wherever needed in behalf of the New York nominations.

The Masonic Fraternity of Springfield Massachusetts, have invited President Johnson to attend their celebration, to take place on St. John's day, June 24th. The President has, in a letter, informed them that he will be unable to attend, but thanks them for the honor of an invitation.

STATE NEWS.

Jacobs opens again, this summer, the Alexina House at Nagg's Head for the accommodation of visitors.

A negro man named Wade Ditcher, at Weldon, has disappeared so mysteriously that fears are entertained of his murder by some of his color, and his body thrown in the Roanoke.

A negro named Daniel Hardy was drowned in the Roanoke, on Saturday last, while engaged in fishing.

Stone, of the Weldon News, was at Warrenton last week, and returns to his sanctum highly impressed with the hospitality of the Warrenites and the beauty of the girls. He is not mistaken.

A STREAK OF LUCK.—The Newbern Journal of Commerce makes the following statement. We hope it is true and that our friend Pierce will live long to enjoy it:

Our respected townsman, W. H. Pearce, Esq., was fortunate enough 23 years ago to rescue from drowning, at Bridgeport, Conn., a Hollander named Yondz Yenchsien.—For more than 22 years neither rescuer or rescued has heard of each other. Last night Mr. Pearce learned that he whom he had saved was dead, and had bequeathed to him a large estate of real and personal property in Brazil.

The same paper gives the following:

Early on Monday morning last, a negro named Henry Williams entered the store of Mr. Jesse C. Piver at Beaufort N. C., by cutting a hole through the floor, and took therefrom dry goods, shoes and cutlery to the amount of about three hundred dollars, and immediately crossing the sound got aboard the train with his booty. Mr. Piver suspecting that Williams was the thief, and hearing that he had left Beaufort, came up to the City yesterday morning, and sued out a warrant to search his house, where he found a portion of his goods; but could not find the thief.

H. N. Brown, of Hillsboro', gladdened our venerable friend, Dennis Heartt, of the Recorder, the other day with a fine plate of strawberries, of the Albany variety. Mr. H. says that they were the best he ever saw. Wonder if any of our friends raise strawberries?

The Charlotte Times gives the following flattering account of the state of trade in that City:

"As an evidence of the briskness of the times, we will mention the fact that on yesterday we saw three different merchants indulging a quiet little snooze in their store doors—nothing occurring to mar their sweet repose.

Butler, of Charlotte, not Ben. but John T. offers a fine lot of spoons for sale. He is no kin to Ben.

The following good start is announced by the Winston Sentinel:

"Reuben Goulding, Esq., of Stokes county, has sold his Forge, situated on Dan River, Danbury, with about 1,200 acres of land attached, to a company of German capitalists, who intend bringing a colony of Germans to that county. It is the intention of the company, we understand, to go largely into the manufacturing business.

The Newbern Journal of Commerce says, very truly, that in no section can the fig be raised in more abundance or of more delicious flavor, than in Eastern North Carolina.

The Fayetteville News has the following:

"Notwithstanding the threatening weather, quite a large crowd assembled in the Fayetteville Hall, on Friday evening last, to witness the raffling of the Memorial Quilt and enjoy themselves generally, in conversation, and by participation in the delightful refreshments offered at the table. The quilt was most beautiful and elaborate in style and workmanship, and the greatest interest was manifested in the result of the raffling. Mrs. Genl. W. G. Lewis, of Tarboro, was the fortunate winner, and was thrown for by W. E. Kyle, Esq. We learn that the gross receipts from the tickets, and the sale of ice cream and cake that night, amounted to $405. It is designed to commence immediately the construction and erection of the monument to the Confederate dead, a diagram and estimate of the cost of which has been furnished by J. B. Smith, Esq. The monument will be placed in a commanding position in the cemetery.

A white brass band is being gotten up in Charlotte.

The Winston Sentinel says:

Reuben Wright, who was convicted at last October term of the Superior Court of Stokes county, of the murder of a negro man, and sentenced to be hung on the 14th of February last, but carried the case to the Supreme Court, where the sentence was confirmed, and was sentenced again at last April Court by Judge Cilley, was hung on Thursday, the 21st inst. near Danbury.

Minta, a negro woman, who was convicted for the same crime, and was sentenced to be hung at the same time, was respited by Gov. Worth until the 23d of October next.

The Democratic Convention of Ohio resolved that the investment of "the plantation negroes of the South with the elective franchise, by an act of a fragmentary Congress, and the disfranchisement of 300,000 white men by the same power in eleven States," met its "contempt and scorn," and should challenge the condemnation of all who respect the civilized rule of the white man." The Democratic Convention of Ohio resolved that as that State had rejected negro suffrage for itself, it would oppose its forced imposition by the Federal government as a most base usurpation.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.—It appears from a recent catalogue of the University of Virginia, located near Charlottesville, that this institution, founded by Jefferson, and cherished with such pious care by the citizens of the Commonwealth, steadily maintains a solid prosperity. The number of students is 475, whereof 190 are from Virginia and 46 from Maryland; the remainder principally from the South. But the District of Columbia, New York, Illinois, Minnesota, and even California, are represented.

The Catholic World says quite a party in the Episcopal Church favors auricular confession: that its ministers are anxious to set up confessional; that Dr. Dix, of Trinity Church, New York, has a number of penitents, and is a very popular confessor with high classes; that his position as a spiritual director at Sister St. Marys is notorious.

The election in Mississippi is to begin June 22., and continue until completed.

DIED:

Suddenly, in this City, about 3 o'clock, yesterday (Thursday) morning, Mrs. FRANCES B. RICHARDSON, widow of the late Dr. W. H. Richardson and eldest daughter of Eldridge Smith, Esq., in the 32d year of her age. Seldom has the community been more shocked than at the sudden death of this estimable and beloved lady. Her health had not been good, yet the day before, she pursued her accustomed duties, retired at the usual hour and, after 1 o'clock, her sister was aroused by her groans or struggles, and, on going to her, found her speechless, and in a few moments her spirit had fled to the spirit-land. Truly, "in the midst of life we are in death." She had been a member of the M. E. Church, South, for several years.

☞ The friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Richardson, at 10 o'clock this morning, from the residence of her father, Eldridge Smith, Esq.]

Directions for Getting Staves.

NORFOLK, May 27, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—We give below the Inspection Law of the State of Virginia, which applies to our market:

White Oak Hogshead Staves must be 3½ feet long, all heart, 3 inches wide, ¾ inches thick on the thin edge, shaved smooth, straight on sides and edges, clear of knots, worm holes, and wind shakes.

Red Oak Hogshead Staves must be 3 inches wide, if all heart, and 3½ inches wide if part sap—same length and thickness, and same requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

White Oak Pipe Staves must be 4½ feet long, all heart, same width, thickness, and requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

White Oak Hogshead Heading must be 5 inches wide, all heart, one-third each 28, 30 and 32 inches long, same thickness and requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

White Oak Barrel Staves must be 32 inches long, 3 inches wide, all heart, same thickness, and requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

Red Oak Hhhd. Staves, if gotten 44 inches long, 4 inches wide, and 1 inch thick, will command a better price than the ordinary dimensions, and are in more demand.

We would advise that all Staves and Heading should be gotten a little over the dimensions required by law, to allow for shrinkage.

It takes 1,200 pieces to make a thousand Staves and Heading.

Staves and Heading of good quality always command remunerative prices in our market, and are nearly always in demand.

Having been engaged in selling Staves for eighteen years, we are perfectly conversant with the business, and flatter ourselves that we can and do always obtain the very highest prices.

Strict attention will be given to any consignments entrusted to our care, and prompt returns made. Any further information will be given on application, with pleasure.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ITS IMPORTANCE AND ITS BENEFITS ARE INCALCULABLE.

A COMPANY PAYING LOSSES PROMPTLY FOR A LONG SERIES OF YEARS, AND IS A stranger to litigation, is entitled to the confidence and patronage of our people And such is the

ÆTNA LIFE COMPANY.

In addition to the very large amount of

paid since its organization, may be added the following policies settled in North Carolina to the 1st March, 1868, thus providing support and comfort to the widow and orphan in their bereavement and distress:

Policy	No.	15.273	settled	$ 5,000
"	"	18 018	"	5,000
"	"	18,607	"	5 000
"	"	24.092	"	3 000
"	"	27.512	"	10,000
"	"	38,650	"	5 000
"	"	44.974	"	2,500
"	"	35 082	"	10,000
Total				$ 45 500.00

The value of all Insurance, either against fire or life, is to know you are investing in a Company of responsibility, and prompt action in discharging all just demands against it Such is the ÆTNA, having now:

ASSETS,	No. POLICIES
$8,000,000.	48,000.
DIVISIBLE SURPLUS	DIVIDENDS,
$1,884,768,51.	50 per cent.

Fifty per cent Dividend is now being returned to all who have paid two premiums, and the Dividends will be given ANNUALLY to all such hereafter, who are insured upon the Life plan.

The Ætna issues policies upon ages from 14 to 65.

The Ætna will give a policy upon which 10 payments may be paid, and nothing more will be required, though the party might live thirty or forty years, and after the payment of ten years he is entitled to the dividends of the Company so long as life continues.

The Ætna issues 10 years Endowment Policies to be paid at death or the specified time.

The Ætna gives a general permit to travel or reside in any part of the United States without any extra charge, and in all respects gives as many advantages to the insured as any other first-class Company.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. | JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:—

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per ~~cent yearly~~, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone,—and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $500,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a SAFE business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

PHŒNIX MUTUAL	$1 74
ÆTNA	1 31
BROOKLYN	1 12
CONNECTICUT MUTUAL	1 05
EQUITABLE	1 24
MANHATTAN	1 42

The PHŒNIX MUTUAL offers peculiar inducements to citizens of the Southern States—its regulations with regard to residence and travel being almost unrestricted.

COUNTY COURT.—This Court continues in session this week, and a number of cases have been disposed of. It will, perhaps, be the last of the "People's Courts," held in this county, unless they should be restored after a trial of the new regime, and that is found wanting. The ends of law and of justice, however, will be quite as readily secured under an intelligent, capable, honest and industrious Superior Court system.—There are some very solid objections to our old County Court system, but we can more easily determine their real value after they have been abolished for awhile.

PIC NIC.—The teachers and children connected with the Sabbath School of the Presbyterian Church, in this City, we learn, will enjoy, to day, a ride on the Railroad to Dunnsville, about 9 miles from the City, and a Pic Nic. The little ones will no doubt have lots of fun and pleasure.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT.—The children assisted by their teachers, of the Baptist Sabbath School in this city, we learn will give a Concert in Tucker Hall to-night.—The price of admission will be 50 cents—children half price; and the proceeds will be applied to the benevolent objects of the Sabbath School.

The former Concerts of this School have been admirable and very popular, and we have no doubt the one to-night will if possible exceed in interest the former. They are under the management of the excellent Superintendent, Willie J. Palmer, Esq., and his assistants and will afford no doubt much entertainment. We shall try to be on hand if possible.

OUR FRIEND BLAIR.—The old saw, "a friend in need is a friend indeed," was fully verified by the accomplished host of the Yarboro' House, on yesterday, when we were sweltering under the heat and toil of the day, he sent us a plate of superb ice-cream and fixings. We shall remember Blair often.

Our City Fathers are closing up the Market House, for the purpose of keeping out loungers, dogs, etc., after market hours. It is not a bad idea.

THE SOLDIERS.—We are pleased to note very general sobriety and quiet among the soldiers composing the 6th. U. S. Infantry now stationed near the city. For a few days after they came and were paid off, they were quite jolly and inspirited, but we heard of no disorders or trouble to our citizens. Now, when we meet them, they are uniformly sober and respectful. They seem to be a clever set of fellows.

DULL.—The city is unusually dull. Our market now is quite a slender affair, and our merchants feel anxious about trade. In the mean time we are glad to say that the number of loungers about the streets are fewer than formerly, hence we judge our farming people are too busily at work in their crops to come to town. All this, argues better times and better crops in future.

We are requested to say, that Crescent Council, No. 3, of the Friends of Temperance, will meet this evening, at 8 o'clock, in their Hall.

LOCUSTS.—We learn that the seventeen year Locusts have made their appearance in this vicinity. We believe they have generally confined their depredations to the oak forests. Planters, we believe, have never been annoyed by attacks upon their crops.

The congressional project for a national telegraph line between Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, to be owned and controlled by the government, does not commend itself to general favor.

Bishop Quintard, of Tennessee, writes a letter to the Southern Churchman, denouncing a ball got up in his diocese for the benefit of a church. "Fairs, suppers, lotteries, balls, and such abominations," he says, "outrage the principles of Christianity."

SICKLES.—We learn from Forney's Chronicle that the New York delegates refused to vote for General Sickles for President of the Chicago Convention.

From the Wilmington Journal.

GOVERNOR Z. B. VANCE.

In a late issue of the New York Globe, a paper edited with great ability, and striking vigorous blows against Radicalism, our attention was arrested by the following article. While assured of its untruth, we preferred that the contradiction should come from the distinguished gentleman himself, whose name was used to give foundation for the statement. Consequently we enclose the article to Gov. Vance, and received from him the prompt and emphatic denial which we publish below.

To the people who know the course of Gov. Vance, and the policy of his administration, it were needless to deny the statements of the correspondent of the Globe, but others may be misled from the very respectable position which that paper holds. We are at all times willing to aid the Globe in its attacks upon Radicalism, but cannot do so at the expense of truth or by winking at blows directed against the honest and gallant North Carolinians, whose conduct has shed honor upon the State.

The letter of the Globe's correspondent above referred to is as follows:

WHY THE WAR WAS PROLONGED.

The following plain statement of an important fact in the history of the late rebellion is made on information furnished by an officer of the U. S. Army who was stationed at Newbern, N. C., in the winter of 1863-'64. It proved, beyond doubt, that the war was prolonged at least one year for the purpose of re electing a Republican candidate as President. Hence it follows that all the men, on both sides, who lost their lives during the last year of the war, were murdered in cold blood, and the hundreds of millions expended in carrying it on unnecessarily and criminally squandered.

During the winter of 1863-'64, the people of North Carolina became very uneasy at the manner in which the war was conducted on the part of the Richmond authorities, and the Chief Magistrate of the State, Gov. Vance, at the request of several influential citizens, went to Richmond and remonstrated with Mr. Davis on the matter in complaint. Report at the time came through the Richmond papers that Davis was very indignant at this remonstrance of Vance, and threatened him with arrest. Be that as it may, Gov. Vance returned to Raleigh, and was soon after visited by William A. Graham, John A. Gilmer, and other distinguished citizens of the old Union party, to consult with him as to the best method of ending the war. The plan suggested was this: that Commissioners should be sent to President Lincoln by Gov. Vance, charged with the following proposition: That North Carolina would place at the disposal of the U. S. Government 30,000 Union soldiers, who would open a communication with the army of Gen. Sherman in Georgia and Tennessee, and thus cut off all connection of the Richmond authorities with the States South and Southwest of North Carolina. This done, the war must inevitably come to an end.

This plan was adopted by Gov. Vance, who at once appointed Commissioners to proceed to Washington. On the arrival of these Commissioners at Gen. Butler's headquarters at City Point, a telegram was sent to President Lincoln, announcing the fact, and the object of the Commission, and asking permission to come to Washington.—After some delay, that permission was refused, and the Commissioners returned to Raleigh. So far our informant was advised by his North Carolina friends at Newbern, who were in the confidence of Gov Vance. On his return to Washington in the summer of 1864 he learned the reason why the North Carolina Commissioners were refused permission to negotiate with President Lincoln—as follows: on the receipt of the telegram from Gen. Butler, Mr. Lincoln called his Cabinet together and laid the matter before them. They all concurred in the feasibility of the plan and its easiness of execution; but here were the objections—if the war were ended before the Presidential election of 1864, the Democrats would probably elect the next President. On these lofty, patriotic, Christian motives, the proposition of North Carolina was rejected.

Thus in our own once happy and prosperous land were perpetrated, by men of the Government in 1861-5, massacres of our own people; and for what? To elect a political partisan to the Presidential chair, and thus cover up and conceal from a just, popular indignation the rascalities and corruptions of the four years previous.

To this letter Gov. Vance replies to us as follows:

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 23, 1868.

Dear Sir:—A friend had a few days before called my attention to the article from the Globe which you enclose in your letter of the 20th instant, but so little did I suppose that anybody in the country who knew me at all, could fail to know my position during the war, that I thought it hardly worth while to correct its assertions. Lest, however, some not well acquainted with the history of North Carolina through the war, should be misled by the Globe correspondent, I beg to answer all who feel an interest in the matter, that the whole story is utterly without foundation. Sincerely anxious as I was during the whole of my administration to secure the return of peace, I yet sought to bring it about in no other way than by urging it with all my might upon President Davis—the legal channel for its negotiation, and by fighting for it upon the field.

What I did was in the face of all the world, and done, I trust, honestly and manfully. I do not need to court any popularity North by denying or falsifying my words and actions. Fortunately, I am not compelled to approve my loyalty for the future by exhibiting and parading my double-villainy in the past. Having eaten no dirt at the beginning of the war, I have not felt under the slightest necessity of eating dirt since its close. If the Government of the United States cannot accept the pledge of good citizenship given by one who has heretofore sworn to his own hurt and changed not, I can render no other. I can offer no perjuries in support of my present truth.—Nor do I desire the good will of any man in the United States obtained by a false exhibition of my record. And still more unwilling am I, my dear sir, to permit any man in the South to suppose for a moment that, for the sake of any advantage to myself, I could cast obloquy or reproach, by word or deed, upon the memory of those who struggled and suffered with me, or allow the impression to go uncorrected that I ever was capable of betraying them.

If I have any consolation in the past, it is that I was zealous and faithful to the cause which my State commanded me to embrace; if I have any hope for the future it is based only on the belief that truth and honor are still reverenced among men.

Very truly yours,
ZEBULON B. VANCE.

To Maj. J. A. ENGELHARD,
Wilmington, N. C.

The Nashville (Tenn.) Press and Times says that it is now "tolerably certain that a proclamation of universal amnesty is in course of preparation at the White House, and will be issued before the meeting of the National Democratic Convention."

THE VERDICT AT THE EXECUTIVE MANSION.

After the verdict of acquittal was rendered by the high court of impeachment yesterday, the Executive Mansion was crowded with officials and citizens to present their congratulations. Foreign Ministers, Cabinet Ministers, and citizens of every degree were there. The President received all these congratulations as a matter of course. Not a muscle of his features was changed. He regarded the victory as one for the country and the Constitution, not for himself. He met the victory as he would have met a defeat, with the expression, "We have done all we could for the country, and God's will be done."—National Intelligencer.

THE OWNER OF A STRAY FORTUNE FOUND—A NEW YORK ENGRAVER INHERITS $14,000,000.

For several weeks past the following advertisement has appeared in the leading daily newspapers of the United States:

"Two millions pounds sterling for the heirs of William Harrison, of London, who emigrated to America, about 1766. Address Rd. Stafford, No. 4, Lincoln's Inn, London."

The New York Times says that the true owner of this vast sum (14,000,000 in greenbacks) has been found in the person of Mr. David R. Harrison, who has been for many years employed as an engraver by the American Bank Note Company. Mr. Harrison is about seventy years of age, and has a large family.

TO LAND OWNERS.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED, BY THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL AND MINING LAND COMPANY, Agent for all that part of North Carolina lying east of and including Catawba County, I am authorized to say, to any person or persons having 10,000 acres in one body, partially cleared and near a Rail Road, that if they will subdivide their lands the Company will purchase alternate lots at their assessed value for taxation or as ascertained by two disinterested parties, paying for the same in the Company's stock—the Company obligating itself to place a white settler on every 200 acres acquired, within three years, or, failing to do so, such land unsettled to revert to the original owner; the owner to retain possession until the land is settled.

The object of this system is to bring into the State an industrious and thrifty population, and to enhance the value of our lands. It has been adopted in other States and is said to be working finely.

This Company was chartered by our Legislature of 1868. Land owners will please address me for particulars at Reidville, N. C.

Also, a bill reducing the interest on the public debt.

Arkansas admission was up.

Drake opposed admission until the fourteenth article became a part of the fundamental law, maintaining that twenty-eight States were required to ratify, and that Ohio and New Jersey had the right to recall its assent.

Drake added: "There was no hurry, we have done without these States for seven years and, can do without them seven months longer,"—(Sensation.)

Executive session—adjourned.

HOUSE.—The Commerce Committee reported a bill allowing importations for the Western states to be appraised and paid at destination, creating the Ohio, Illinois and Missouri Collection Districts, and making Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis ports of entry, passed—66 to 64.

Indian bill was resumed, when the Corruption Committee introduced a resolution instructing the Sergeant at arms to fit up the guard room in the Capitol for Woolley's confinement.

The Democrats are still fillibustering, a call of the House is progressing with ayes and nays on every excuse.

The Senate rejected Thomas Sim, as Marshall for South Carolina.

Discussed Schofield. The difficulty lies in the wording of his nomination which reads, vice Stanton removed.

The affairs at the War office is unchanged.

Drake's movement in opposition to Arkansas immediate admission excites astonishment.

It is not known who will follow his lead.

The Senate is divided into four parties on the subject.

Senatorial caucus is considering Forney's resignation. Adjourned to Monday, when the acquittal Senators will be entered.

Wade, Chandler, Cattell and other extreme Radicals withdrew.

Ex-Senator Fagg, of North Carolina, is among the applicants for Forney's place.

It is believed that Seward, Randall and McCulloch will soon retire.

It is asserted positively that McCulloch will retire on the 1st. of June.

Stanton's son has resigned his clerkship in the War office.

LOOK OUT FOR A. CREECH!

JUST RECEIVED, $15,000 worth of new Spring and summer Goods, which must, at all events, be sold within the next sixty days, if possible If you want

LADIES' DRESS GOODS,

I have a beautiful assortment of the various styles and latest importations. It is a well known fact, and universally admitted, that to buy your goods. This can be, and is substantiated daily, by hundreds.

CREECH'S IS THE PLACE

If you want Cassimeres Tweeds, Kentucky Jeans, Cotton and Linen Goods of all descriptions, and suitable for gentlemen, boys and children's wear, CREECH'S is the place to look for them.

At Low Prices,

Why, you may go up one side of Fayetteville Street and down the other; yes, and then the cross streets, and you will be bound to come to the conclusion that CREECH'S is the place you had better do your trading. If you want trimmed or untrimmed, CREECH'S is the place to get them. If you wish to purchase any style of

LADIES' BONNETS,

LADIES, MISSES OR CHILDREN'S HATS,

don't buy until you have seen CREECH'S, or you will miss a great bargain, as he has one of the largest and most beautiful assortments in the City. If you are looking for

MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S HATS,

Ladies, Men and Children's Shoes, why if you stop at Creech's you will surely be suited in style, quality and price.

I told the people, some time ago, that there was no House in the City that could or would sell goods cheaper than I, and now I intend to keep my word. I said then what I meant, and now mean what I say. So don't fail to come to CREECH'S, on R. Smith's corner.

VERY VALUABLE GOLD MINE AT AUCTION.

WILL BE SOLD, BY VIRTUE OF AUTHORITY vested in the undersigned, at the Exchange Sales Rooms, in the City of Baltimore on Tuesday, the 23d day of June, 1868, at one o'clock, P. M., all the property of the Baltimore & Montgomery Mining Company, better known as the

on the Uaharie river, in Montgomery county, North Carolina, containing about 700 ACRES OF LAND, with all its equipments, consisting of two Steam Engines, one of 10 horse and the other of 25 horse power, Pumps, two round Buddles 16 feet diameter, 3 Washers with Rockers and Sluice-boxes, buildings for office, store and Superintendent, a large Boarding-house, Barn, Stables, Blacksmith Shop, and about 20 small houses for miners, &c.

This mine is known as one of the most valuable in this country, and sufficiently developed, to a depth of upwards of 150 feet, so as to justify extensive operations; the vein is composed of argillaceous slate, and forms an auriferous bed from 10 to 12 feet in thickness, carrying very strong veins of free gold in its centre.

Thorough and reliable examinations and reports have been made by Prof Chas. T. Jackson, of Boston; Prof. Genth, of Philadelphia, and the late Prof. Hausser, who all agree and represent this mining property of great intrinsic value.

Terms to be made known on the day of sale.

FRIDAY, MAY 29, 1868

DESTITUTION IN NORTH CAROLINA.

We observe that persons are representing to the Northern people an alarming state of destitution among the people of Onslow, Carteret, Craven, Beaufort, Rockingham and other counties in this State. We have no doubt, that there is not a county in the State, where some persons cannot be found, who are reduced to poverty and suffering. It could not be otherwise after the heavy losses our people have sustained, their great indebtedness, the exceedingly short crops which have been produced in the State since the war closed, and the large numbers of aged, infirm persons and helpless children which have been turned adrift without a provider, and the numbers of persons who are able to work, but who are unwilling to do so on such terms and under such restraints as employers are compelled to give and exact or be ruined themselves, so long as they can barely live on the charity of the government or the people.

In several counties this state of destitution must be great. In Wake and adjoining counties, many are suffering, as is indicated by the large numbers which daily throng the office of the Freedman's Bureau in this city.

But it seems to us, that to guard the public against imposition, these representations of destitution should be made public by some organized Association or by the Magistracy of the counties where it exists or, by those officers who are especially entrusted with the care of the poor, and that the contributions for their relief should be placed in the hands of persons known to the public and in some sort responsible, at least to public opinion for their proper distribution. We would not by any means dam up the streams of benevolence in this direction, but when the public make contributions to aid the suffering, they ought to have some proper assurance that they will be properly applied.

MR. STANTON.

This man has been a serious impediment to the settlement of the difficulties of the country. Before the war, he aided its bringing on by his counsel and course; during the war his despotic will, and his treatment of many of the officers of the army, made him the object of hatred, and since the war his course has been prompted by mischief and inordinate hatred to the Southern people. He has been a chief hindrance to the President and the plotter of trouble in the councils of the nation. His resignation comes at least three years too late for the peace and future well being of the country, yet it is better late than never. The following is his queer letter to the President, on surrendering the War Office:

"WAR DEPARTMENT,
"WASHINGTON CITY, May 26, 1868.

"Sir,—The resolution of the Senate of the United States of the 21st. of February last declaring that the President has no power to remove the Secretary of War and designate any other officer to perform the duties of that office ad interim, having this day failed to be supported by two-thirds of the Senators present and voting on the articles of impeachment preferred against you by the House of Representatives, I have relinquished charge of the War Department, and have left the same and the books, archives, papers, and property in my custody as Secretary of War in care of Brevet Major-General Townsend, the senior assistant adjutant-general, subject to your direction.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
"Secretary of War.

"To the President."

WHAT A RADICAL SAYS.—During the debate in the House of Representatives, Monday, on the efforts of Butler to get up additional evidence to convict the President:

"Mr. Baker, (Radical,) of Illinois, remarked that he was impelled by duty to say one word. In his opinion it was a violation of public justice, where the object was to make an inquest of improper conduct or corruption in regard to a high State trial, to deposit the power in the hands of only one party. He declared in his place his profound conviction that it was a violation of the instincts of the Anglo-Saxon heart and of Anglo Saxon liberty. He wanted corruption exposed and ferreted out, and brought to the light of day. This investigation, as long as any inculpation existed, should be carried on. But here in his place, even if it brought him in opposition to his party friends, he protested against an ex parte inquest into a great public transaction. [Applause on the Democratic side.]

We are pleased to state that Mr. Baker has shown recently, on several occasions, that his devotion to party does not entirely blind his judgment and obliterate his sense of moral obligation, and what is due to those who are opposed to him in politics.

The fact that Mr. Baker is the only Radical in the House capable of acting thus honorably, ought to fix in the public mind utter scorn and indignation against the Radical party, and ought to determine every honest man in the country, to exert himself to hurl them from power as soon as possible.

PROFITABLE FARMING.—A gentleman on the south side of James River made last year a crop of tobacco, with his own labor, that of an old colored man and one horse, which was sold a day or two since by his commission merchant, at the Tobacco Exchange, for twenty five hundred dollars. The tobacco was of fine quality.—Richmond Enquirer.

The above shows what industry and skill will do. Our people need not fear starvation and utter pecuniary ruin if their troubles will drive them to the exercise of proper skill, enterprise and industry.

THE ISSUES OF THE CANVASS.—We ask the attention of the reader to the able article on the first page of to-day's issue taken from that able Democratic paper, the New York World, with the foregoing title.

THE RIGHT KIND OF TALK.

Mr. A. H. H. Stuart, in a letter to John T. Stewart, of Illinois, says the democracy in Virginia would readily accept Pendleton as the candidate for the Presidency, but will stand by the choice of the Convention, leaving the matter mainly in the hands of the Northern democracy.

We think we can say, that the above views correspond precisely with the views held by the Democrats and Conservatives of North Carolina. They will not be forward in the National Democratic Convention in expressing their preferences. Perhaps, Gen. Hancock, because of his high regard for the Constitution, and for law, and for order, and for the rights of individuals, as evinced in his administration as District Commander of Louisiana and Texas, has a stronger hold upon the feelings of the white people of North Carolina, than any other man prominently named for the Presidency, but they will heartily acquiesce in and support the nominees of the National Democratic Convention to meet in New York, the 4th of July next. They want honest men, men capable of administering the government according to the Constitution, who are sound on the great questions at issue, and free from the corruptions and fanaticism of Radicalism. That is all they require.

THE CANVASS IN VIRGINIA.

The canvass on the new Constitution of Virginia opens vigorously in that State.—Her leading and substantial men have rolled up their sleeves and gone into the fight with great ardor and ability and with strong hopes of success. The denunciation of the new Constitution by Gen. Schofield will we trust, give the Conservatives the vantage ground. We trust the land of Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe and Marshall will never be surrendered to the control of scallawags and ignorant blacks.

RUMORED CHANGES IN THE CABINET.

It is believed that Gen. Schofield's nomination as Secretary of War will be confirmed by the Senate. It is understood that General Grant approves it but Senator Sumner does not. In the meantime the President will make no arrangements to supply the place until the Senate confirms or rejects it.

It is also understood that Messrs. Seward and Randall desire to retire from their positions in the Cabinet.

Mr. Chanler, a Democratic member of the lower House of Congress, with a view of testing the Radicals, offered the following resolution, which was referred to a Committee on Monday, in order to get rid of it:

"Resolved, That all inhabitants of any State or Territory of the United States other than the people aforesaid, who may now or hereafter exercise the right of suffrage, do so on suffrance, under the franchise granted by the white race, who may lawfully hereafter, for good cause shown at any time, revoke the privilege or privileges so granted to the mixed races of African or Asiatic descent."

GOV. VANCE.—The reader need not be invited to notice the article from the Wilmington Journal, and the characteristic letter from Gov. Vance, in reply to the slanderous insinuations and statements of an annonymous correspondent of the New York Globe. The character of Gov. Vance with true North Carolinians and true men everywhere, is a bulwark against the tongue of calumny.

A HOPEFUL SIGN.

A gentleman who is connected with the Banking and Currency Bureau returned here Saturday from a business trip in the West, and reports the Republican party badly divided. In Cincinnati he found all the leading Republicans indignant at the assaults which had been made upon Chief Justice Chase, and many of them openly declared their purpose to sustain the Conservative ticket regardless of who might be the nominee in the New York Convention. They said they agreed fully with the Chief Justice that the time had come for all lovers of constitutional liberty to band together against the Jacobins.—Wash. Letter to Balt. Gazette.

RECONSTRUCTION.—The general question of bringing in the Southern States has been a good deal debated among Republicans for the last three or four days. General Grant and Mr. Colfax both favor the speedy admission of such as have complied with the reconstruction acts, and can present acceptable Constitutions. There are some persons, however, who profess to believe that the true interest of the Republican party will best be subserved by deliberate action in this matter.

The unanimity with which restoration bills have been put through the House may, it is believed, be taken as a general indication of the feeling in the Senate. It seems pretty certain that the Senate will finally agree with the House in ordering a new election in Alabama, but that the other reconstructed States will be admitted before July.—New York Times.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. The Negro Vote.—A Washington letter to the Louisville Journal says that when the Democratic National Convention meets July 4th, a resolution will be offered by some of the Northern delegates to the effect that the party pledges itself to resist the counting of any electoral votes determined by the admission of negro States; that the attempt by the Radicals to secure power in that manner by defrauding the people of their inherent liberties in the selection of a President will be resisted if necessary, with armed force, and that the legally elected President of the white race shall be inaugurated if it requires even a million of bayonets to install him in the White House.

A letter has been received from General McClellan in reply to one from a friend asking permission to present his name for nomination at the 4th. of July Convention. The General earnestly begs that this shall not be done, and supports the request with patriotic reasons, creditable alike to his head and heart. He urges the nomination of a new man—a statesman who will command the respect, admiration and enthusiastic support of the combined anti-Radical elements of the whole country, and pledges himself, as soon as the nomination is made, to come home and canvass wherever needed in behalf of the New York nominations.

The Masonic Fraternity of Springfield Massachusetts, have invited President Johnson to attend their celebration, to take place on St. John's day, June 24th. The President has, in a letter, informed them that he will be unable to attend, but thanks them for the honor of an invitation.

STATE NEWS.

Jacobs opens again, this summer, the Alexina House at Nagg's Head for the accommodation of visitors.

A negro man named Wade Ditcher, at Weldon, has disappeared so mysteriously that fears are entertained of his murder by some of his color, and his body thrown in the Roanoke.

A negro named Daniel Hardy was drowned in the Roanoke, on Saturday last, while engaged in fishing.

Stone, of the Weldon News, was at Warrenton last week, and returns to his sanctum highly impressed with the hospitality of the Warrenites and the beauty of the girls. He is not mistaken.

A STREAK OF LUCK.—The Newbern Journal of Commerce makes the following statement. We hope it is true and that our friend Pierce will live long to enjoy it:

Our respected townsman, W. H. Pearce, Esq., was fortunate enough 23 years ago to rescue from drowning, at Bridgeport, Conn., a Hollander named Yondz Yonchsien.—For more than 22 years neither rescuer or rescued has heard of each other. Last night Mr. Pearce learned that he whom he had saved was dead, and had bequeathed to him a large estate of real and personal property in Brazil.

The same paper gives the following:

Early on Monday morning last, a negro named Henry Williams entered the store of Mr. Jesse C. Piver at Beaufort N. C., by cutting a hole through the floor, and took therefrom dry goods, shoes and cutlery to the amount of about three hundred dollars, and immediately crossing the sound got aboard the train with his booty. Mr. Piver suspecting that Williams was the thief, and hearing that he had left Beaufort, came up to the City yesterday morning, and sued out a warrant to search his house, where he found a portion of his goods; but could not find the thief.

H. N. Brown, of Hillsboro', gladdened our venerable friend, Dennis Heartt, of the Recorder, the other day with a fine plate of strawberries, of the Albany variety. Mr. H. says that they were the best he ever saw. Wonder if any of our friends raise strawberries?

The Charlotte Times gives the following flattering account of the state of trade in that City:

"As an evidence of the briskness of the times, we will mention the fact that on yesterday we saw three different merchants indulging a quiet little snooze in their store doors—nothing occurring to mar their sweet repose.

Butler, of Charlotte, not Ben, but John T. offers a fine lot of spoons for sale. He is no kin to Ben.

The following good start is announced by the Winston Sentinel:

"Reuben Goulding, Esq., of Stokes county, has sold his Forge, situated on Dan River, Danbury, with about 1,200 acres of land attached, to a company of German capitalists, who intend bringing a colony of Germans to that county. It is the intention of the company, we understand, to go largely into the manufacturing business.

The Newbern Journal of Commerce says, very truly, that in no section can the fig be raised in more abundance or of more delicious flavor, than in Eastern North Carolina.

The Fayetteville News has the following:

"Notwithstanding the threatening weather, quite a large crowd assembled in the Fayetteville Hall, on Friday evening last, to witness the raffling of the Memorial Quilt and enjoy themselves generally, in conversation, and by participation in the delightful refeshments offered at the table. The quilt was most beautiful and elaborate in style and workmanship, and the greatest interest was manifested in the result of the raffling. Mrs. Genl. W. G. Lewis, of Tarboro, was the fortunate winner, and was thrown for by W. E. Kyle, Esq. We learn that the gross receipts from the tickets, and the sale of ice cream and cake that night, amounted to $405. It is designed to commence immediately the construction and erection of the monument to the Confederate dead, a diagram and estimate of the cost of which has been furnished by J. B. Smith, Esq. The monument will be placed in a commanding position in the cemetery.

A white brass band is being gotten up in Charlotte.

The Winston Sentinel says:

Reuben Wright, who was convicted at last October term of the Superior Court of Stokes county, of the murder of a negro man, and sentenced to be hung on the 14th of February last, but carried the case to the Supreme Court, where the sentence was confirmed, and was sentenced again at last April Court by Judge Cilley, was hung on Thursday, the 21st inst. near Danbury.

Minta, a negro woman, who was convicted for the same crime, and was sentenced to be hung at the same time, was respited by Gov. Worth until the 23d of October next.

The Democratic Convention of Ohio resolved that the investment of "the plantation negroes of the South with the elective franchise, by an act of a fragmentary Congress, and the disfranchisement of 300,000 white men by the same power in eleven States," met its "contempt and scorn," and should challenge the condemnation of all who respect the civilized rule of the white man." The Democratic Convention of Ohio resolved that as that State had rejected negro suffrage for itself, it would oppose its forced imposition by the Federal government as a most base usurpation.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.—It appears from a recent catalogue of the University of Virginia, located near Charlottesville, that this institution, founded by Jefferson, and cherished with such pious care by the citizens of the Commonwealth, steadily maintains a solid prosperity. The number of students is 475, whereof 190 are from Virginia and 46 from Maryland; the remainder principally from the South. But the District of Columbia, New York, Illinois, Minnesota, and even California, are represented.

The Catholic World says quite a party in the Episcopal Church favors auricular confession; that its ministers are anxious to set up confessional; that Dr. Dix, of Trinity Church, New York, has a number of penitents, and is a very popular confessor with high classes; that his position as a spiritual director at Sister St. Marys is notorious.

The election in Mississippi is to begin June 22., and continue until completed.

DIED:

Suddenly, in this City, about 2 o'clock, yesterday (Thursday) morning, MRS. FRANCES B. RICHARDSON, widow of the late Dr. M. H. Richardson and eldest daughter of Eldridge Smith, Esq., in the 33d year of her age. Seldom has the community been more shocked than at the sudden death of this estimable and beloved lady. Her health had not been good, yet the day before, she pursued her accustomed duties, retired at the usual hour and, after 1 o'clock, her sister was aroused by her groans or struggles, and, on going to her, found her speechless, and in a few moments her spirit had fled to the spirit-land. Truly, "in the midst of life we are in death." She had been a member of the M. E. Church, South, for several years.

[☞ The friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Richardson, at 10 o'clock this morning, from the residence of her father, Eldridge Smith, Esq.]

Directions for Getting Staves.

NORFOLK, May 27, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—We give below the Inspection Law of the State of Virginia, which applies to our market.

White Oak Hogshead Staves must be 3½ feet long, all heart, 3 inches wide, ¾ inches thick on the thin edge, shaved smooth, straight on sides and edges, clear of knots, worm holes, and wind shakes.

Red Oak Hogshead Staves must be 3 inches wide, if all heart, and 3½ inches wide if part sap—same length and thickness, and same requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

White Oak Pipe Staves must be 4½ feet long, all heart, same width, thickness, and requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

White Oak Hogshead Heading must be 5 inches wide, all heart, one-third each 28, 30 and 32 inches long, same thickness and requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

White Oak Barrel Staves must be 32 inches long, 3 inches wide, all heart, same thickness, and requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

Red Oak Hhhd. Staves, if gotten 44 inches long, 4 inches wide, and 1 inch thick, will command a better price than the ordinary dimensions, and are in more demand.

We would advise that all Staves and Heading should be gotten a little over the dimensions required by law, to allow for shrinkage.

It takes 1,200 pieces to make a thousand Staves and Heading.

Staves and Heading of good quality always command remunerative prices in our market, and are nearly always in demand.

Having been engaged in selling Staves for eighteen years, we are perfectly conversant with the business, and flatter ourselves that we can and do always obtain the very highest prices.

Strict attention will be given to any consignments entrusted to our care, and prompt returns made. Any further information will be given on application, with pleasure.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ITS IMPORTANCE AND ITS BENEFITS ARE INCALCULABLE.

A COMPANY PAYING LOSSES PROMPTLY FOR A LONG SERIES OF YEARS, AND IS A stranger to litigation, is entitled to the confidence and patronage of our people. And such is the

ÆTNA LIFE COMPANY.

In addition to the very large amount of $17,485,894.71

paid since its organization, may be added the following policies settled in North Carolina to the 1st March, 1868, thus providing support and comfort to the widow and orphan in their bereavement and distress:

Policy No.	15.273—settled		$5,000
" "	18 0.8	"	5,000
" "	18.607	"	4,000
" "	24.092	"	3,000
" "	27.512	"	10,000
" "	38,650	"	5,000
" "	41.974	"	3,000
" "	35 082	"	10,000
Total			$45,000

The value of all Insurance, either against fire or life, is to know you are investing in a Company of responsibility, and prompt action in discharging all just demands against it. Such is the ÆTNA, having now:

ASSETS, $8,000,000.

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,768,51.

No. POLICIES 48,000.

DIVIDENDS, 50 per cent.

Fifty per cent Dividend is now being returned to all who have paid two premiums, and the Dividends will be given ANNUALLY to all such hereafter, who are insured upon the Life plan.

The Ætna issues policies upon ages from 14 to 65.

The Ætna will give a policy upon which 10 payments may be paid, and nothing more will be required, though the party might live thirty or forty years, and after the payment of ten years be entitled to the dividends of the Company so long as life continues.

The Ætna issues 10 years Endowment Policies to be paid at death or the specified time.

The Ætna gives a general permit to travel or reside in any part of the United States without any extra charge, and in all respects gives as many advantages to the insured as any other first-class Company.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. | JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:—

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone,—and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $300,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a SAFE business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

PHŒNIX MUTUAL	$1.75
ÆTNA	1.32
BROOKLYN	1.13
CONNECTICUT MUTUAL	1.65
EQUITABLE	1.24
MANHATTAN	1.42

The PHŒNIX MUTUAL offers peculiar inducements to citizens of the Southern States—its regulations with regard to residence and travel being almost unrestricted.

These statements are made from impartial reports in the hands of the Agents of the Company.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Mrs. Slater proposes to teach a select Dancing School; also a Music Class. See card.

Visitors to Commencements of Colleges and Schools to travel on the N. C. Railroad for one fare. See advertisement.

Buggies and Rockaways by Messrs A. A. McKethan & Sons, at Fayetteville, for sale. See card. We know these gentlemen, and our readers may be sure of getting good and substantial work.

W. S. Mason, Esq., Clerk and Master in Equity, notifies certain parties to attend, &c. See advertisement.

A fine Smut Machine for sale at B. P. Williamson & Co's office.

COUNTY COURT.—This Court continues in session this week, and a number of cases have been disposed of. It will, perhaps, be the last of the "People's Courts," held in this county, unless they should be restored after a trial of the new regime, and that is found wanting. The ends of law and of justice, however, will be quite as readily secured under an intelligent, capable, honest and industrious Superior Court system.—There are some very solid objections to our old County Court system, but we can more easily determine their real value after they have been abolished for awhile.

PIC NIC.—The teachers and children connected with the Sabbath School of the Presbyterian Church, in this City, we learn, will enjoy, to day, a ride on the Railroad to Dunnsville, about 9 miles from the City, and a Pic Nic. The little ones will no doubt have lots of fun and pleasure.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT.—The children assisted by their teachers, of the Baptist Sabbath School in this city, we learn will give a Concert in Tucker Hall to-night.—The price of admission will be 50 cents—children half price; and the proceeds will be applied to the benevolent objects of the Sabbath School.

The former Concerts of this School have been admirable and very popular, and we have no doubt the one to-night will if possible exceed in interest the former. They are under the management of the excellent Superintendent, Willie J. Palmer, Esq., and his assistants and will afford no doubt much entertainment. We shall try to be on hand if possible.

OUR FRIEND BLAIR.—The old saw, "a friend in need is a friend indeed," was fully verified by the accomplished host of the Yarboro' House, on yesterday, when we were sweltering under the heat and toil of the day, he sent us a plate of superb ice-cream and fixings. We shall remember Blair often.

Our City Fathers are closing up the Market House, for the purpose of keeping out loungers, dogs, etc., after market hours. It is not a bad idea.

THE SOLDIERS.—We are pleased to note very general sobriety and quiet among the soldiers composing the 6th. U. S. Infantry now stationed near the city. For a few days after they came and were paid off, they were quite jolly and inspirited, but we heard of no disorders or trouble to our citizens. Now, when we meet them, they are uniformly sober and respectful. They seem to be a clever set of fellows.

DULL.—The city is unusually dull. Our market now is quite a slender affair, and our merchants feel anxious about trade. In the mean time we are glad to say that the number of loungers about the streets are fewer than formerly, hence we judge our farming people are too busily at work in their crops to come to town. All this, argues better times and better crops in future.

We are requested to say, that Crescent Council, No. 3, of the Friends of Temperance, will meet this evening, at 8 o'clock, in their Hall.

LOCUSTS.—We learn that the seventeen year Locusts have made their appearance in this vicinity. We believe they have generally confined their depredations to the oak forests. Planters, we believe, have never been annoyed by attacks upon their crops.

The congressional project for a national telegraph line between Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, to be owned and controlled by the government, does not commend itself to general favor.

Bishop Quintard, of Tennessee, writes a letter to the Southern Churchman, denouncing a ball got up in his diocese for the benefit of a church. "Fairs, suppers, lotteries, balls, and such abominations," he says, "outrage the principles of Christianity."

SICKLES.—We learn from Forney's Chronicle that the New York delegates refused to vote for General Sickles for President of the Chicago Convention.

From the Wilmington Journal.

GOVERNOR Z. B. VANCE.

In a late issue of the New York Globe, a paper edited with great ability, and striking vigorous blows against Radicalism, our attention was arrested by the following article. While assured of its untruth, we preferred that the contradiction should come from the distinguished gentleman himself, whose name was used to give foundation for the statement. Consequently we enclose the article to Gov. Vance, and received from him the prompt and emphatic denial which we publish below.

To the people who know the course of Gov. Vance, and the policy of his administration, it were needless to deny the statements of the correspondent of the Globe, but others may be misled from the very respectable position which that paper holds. We are at all times willing to aid the Globe in its attacks upon Radicalism, but cannot do so at the expense of truth or by winking at blows directed against the honest and gallant North Carolinians, whose conduct has shed honor upon the State.

The letter of the Globe's correspondent above referred to is as follows:

WHY THE WAR WAS PROLONGED.

The following plain statement of an important fact in the history of the late rebellion is made on information furnished by an officer of the U. S. Army who was stationed at Newbern, N. C., in the winter of 1863-'64. It proved, beyond doubt, that the war was prolonged at least one year for the purpose of re-electing a Republican candidate as President. Hence it follows that all the men, on both sides, who lost their lives during the last year of the war, were murdered in cold blood, and the hundreds of millions expended in carrying it on unnecessarily and criminally squandered.

During the winter of 1863-'64, the people of North Carolina became very uneasy at the manner in which the war was conducted on the part of the Richmond authorities, and the Chief Magistrate of the State, Gov. Vance, at the request of several influential citizens, went to Richmond and remonstrated with Mr. Davis on the matter in complaint. Report at the time came through the Richmond papers that Davis was very indignant at this remonstrance of Vance, and threatened him with arrest. Be that as it may, Gov. Vance returned to Raleigh, and was soon after visited by William A. Graham, John A. Gilmer, and other distinguished citizens of the old Union party, to consult with him as to the best method of ending the war. The plan suggested was this: that Commissioners should be sent to President Lincoln by Gov. Vance, charged with the following proposition: That North Carolina would place at the disposal of the U. S. Government 30,000 Union soldiers, who would open a communication with the army of Gen. Sherman in Georgia and Tennessee, and thus cut off all connection of the Richmond authorities with the States South and Southwest of North Carolina. This done, the war must inevitably come to an end.

This plan was adopted by Gov. Vance, who at once appointed Commissioners to proceed to Washington. On the arrival of these Commissioners at Gen. Butler's headquarters at City Point, a telegram was sent to President Lincoln, announcing the fact, and the object of the Commission, and asking permission to come to Washington.—After some delay, that permission was refused, and the Commissioners returned to Raleigh. So far our informant was advised by his North Carolina friends at Newbern, who were in the confidence of Gov Vance. On his return to Washington in the summer of 1864 he learned the reason why the North Carolina Commissioners were refused permission to negotiate with President Lincoln—as follows: on the receipt of the telegram from Gen. Butler, Mr. Lincoln called his Cabinet together and laid the matter before them. They all concurred in the feasibility of the plan and its easiness of execution; but here were the objections—if the war were ended before the Presidential election of 1864, the Democrats would probably elect the next President. On these lofty, patriotic, Christian motives, the proposition of North Carolina was rejected.

Thus in our own once happy and prosperous land were perpetrated, by men of the Government in 1861-5, massacres of our own people; and for what? To elect a political partisan to the Presidential chair, and thus cover up and conceal from a just, popular indignation the rascalities and corruptions of the four years previous.

To this letter Gov. Vance replies to us as follows:

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 23, 1868.

Dear Sir:—A friend had a few days before called my attention to the article from the Globe which you enclose in your letter of the 20th instant, but so little did I suppose that anybody in the country who knew me at all, could fail to know my position during the war, that I thought it hardly worth while to correct its assertions. Lest, however, some not well acquainted with the history of North Carolina through the war, should be misled by the Globe correspondent, I beg to answer all who feel an interest in the matter, that the whole story is utterly without foundation. Sincerely anxious as I was during the whole of my administration to secure the return of peace, I yet sought to bring it about in no other way than by urging it with all my might upon President Davis—the legal channel for its negotiation, and by fighting for it upon the field.

What I did was in the face of all the world, and done, I trust, honestly and manfully. I do not need to court any popularity North by denying or falsifying my words and actions. Fortunately, I am not compelled to approve my loyalty for the future by exhibiting and parading my double-villainy in the past. Having eaten no fire at the beginning of the war, I have not felt under the slightest necessity of eating dirt since its close. If the Government of the United States cannot accept the pledge of good citizenship given by one who has heretofore sworn to his own hurt and changed not, I can render no other. I can offer no perjuries in support of my present truth.—Nor do I desire the good will of any man in the United States obtained by a false exhibition of my record. And still more unwilling am I, my dear sir, to permit any man in the South to suppose for a moment that, for the sake of any advantage to myself, I could cast obloquy or reproach, by word or deed, upon the memory of those who struggled and suffered with me, or allow the impression to go uncorrected that I ever was capable of betraying them.

If I have any consolation in the past, it is that I was zealous and faithful to the cause which my State commanded me to embrace; if I have any hope for the future it is based only on the belief that truth and honor are still reverenced among men.

Very truly yours,
ZEBULON B. VANCE.

To Maj. J. A. ENGELHARD,
Wilmington, N. C.

The Nashville (Tenn.) Press and Times says that it is now "tolerably certain that a proclamation of universal amnesty is in course of preparation at the White House, and will be issued before the meeting of the National Democratic Convention."

THE VERDICT AT THE EXECUTIVE MANSION.

After the verdict of acquittal was rendered by the high court of impeachment yesterday, the Executive Mansion was crowded with officials and citizens to present their congratulations. Foreign Ministers, Cabinet Ministers, and citizens of every degree were there. The President received all these congratulations as a matter of course. Not a muscle of his features was changed. He regarded the victory as one for the country and the Constitution, not for himself. He met the victory as he would have met a defeat, with the expression. "We have done all we could for the country, and God's will be done."—National Intelligencer.

THE OWNER OF A STRAY FORTUNE FOUND—A NEW YORK ENGRAVER INHERITS $14,000,000.

For several weeks past the following advertisement has appeared in the leading daily newspapers of the United States:

"Two millions pounds sterling for the heirs of William Harrison, of London, who emigrated to America, about 1766. Address Rd. Stafford, No. 4, Lincoln's Inn, London."

The New York Times says that the true owner of this vast sum (14,000,000 in greenback-) has been found in the person of Mr. David R. Harrison, who has been for many years employed as an engraver by the American Bank Note Company. Mr. Harrison is about seventy years of age, and has a large family.

TO LAND OWNERS.
HAVING BEEN APPOINTED BY THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL AND MINING LAND COMPANY, Agent for all that part of North Carolina lying east of and including Catawba County, I am authorized to say, to any person or persons having 10,000 acres in one body, partially cleared and near a Rail Road that if they will subdivide their lands the Company will purchase alternate lots at their assessed value for taxation or as ascertained by two disinterested parties, paying for the same in the Company's stock—the Company obligating itself to place a white settler on every 200 acres, so acquired, within three years, or, failing to do so, such land unsettled to revert to the original owner; the owner to retain possession until the land is settled.
The object of this system is to bring into the State an industrious and thrifty population and to enhance the value of our lands. It has been adopted in other States and is said to be working finely.
This Company was chartered by our Legislature of 1866. Land owners will please address me for particulars at Reidville, N. C.

FROM WASHINGTON—CONGRESS AND OTHER MATTERS.

WASHINGTON, May 28, P. M.

SENATE.—Wade appointed Buckalew, Morrill, of Maine, Stuart, Chandler, and Thayer a Committee to investigate the reported corruption.

Doolittle presented a memorial from the Conservative citizens of South Carolina, against the Constitution. He said that it was an able paper, temporately written, and asked its reference to the special consideration of the Judiciary Committee

A bill was introduced extending the time for the completion of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Also, a bill reducing the interest on the public debt.

Arkansas admission was up.

Drake opposed admission until the fourteenth article became a part of the fundamental law, maintaining that twenty-eight States were required to ratify, and that Ohio and New Jersey had the right to recall its assent.

Drake added: "There was no hurry, we have done without these States for seven years and can do without them seven months longer,"—(Sensation.)

Executive session—adjourned.

HOUSE.—The Commerce Committee reported a bill allowing importations for the Western States to be appraised and paid at destination, creating the Ohio, Illinois and Missouri Collection Districts, and making Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis ports of entry, passed—66 to 64.

Indian bill was resumed, when the Corruption Committee introduced a resolution instructing the Sergeant at arms to fit up the guard room in the Capitol for Woolley's confinement.

The Democrats are still filibustering, a call of the House is progressing with ayes and nays on every excuse.

The Senate rejected Thomas Sim, as Marshall for South Carolina.

Discussed Schofield. The difficulty lies in the wording of his nomination which reads, vice Stanton removed.

The affairs at the War office is unchanged.

Drake's movement in opposition to Arkansas immediate admission excites astonishment.

It is not known who will follow his lead.

The Senate is divided into four parties on the subject.

Senatorial caucus is considering Forney's resignation Adjourned to Monday, when the acquittal Senators will be entered.

Wade, Chandler, Cattell and other extreme Radicals withdrew.

Ex-Senator Fagg, of North Carolina, is among the applicants for Forney's place.

It is believed that Seward, Randall and McCulloch will soon retire.

It is asserted positively that McCulloch will retire on the 1st. of June.

Stanton's son has resigned his clerkship in the War office.

North Carolina Mining Property for Sale in Baltimore.
VERY VALUABLE GOLD MINE AT AUCTION.
WILL BE SOLD, BY VIRTUE OF AUTHORITY vested in the undersigned, at the Exchange Sales Rooms, in the City of Baltimore on Tuesday, the 23d day of June, 1868, at one o'clock, P. M., all the property of the Baltimore & Montgomery Mining Company, better known as the
STEELE GOLD MINE,
on the Uwharie river, in Montgomery county, North Carolina, containing about 700 ACRES OF LAND, with all its equipments, consisting of two Steam Engines, one of 10 horse and the other of 25 horse power, Pumps, two round Buddles, 16 feet diameter, 3 Washers with Rockers and Sluice-boxes, buildings for office, store and superintendent, a large Boarding-house, Barn, Stables, Blacksmith Shop, and about 20 small houses for miners, &c.
This mine is known as one of the most valuable in this country, and sufficiently developed, to a depth of upwards of 150 feet, so as to justify extensive operations; the vein is composed of argillaceous slate and forms an auriferous bed of from 10 to 12 feet in thickness, carrying very rich strong veins of free gold in its centre.
Thorough and reliable examinations and reports have been made by Prof Chas. T. Jackson, of Boston, Prof. Genth, of Philadelphia, and the late Prof. Hanser, who all agree and represent this mining property of great intrinsic value
Terms to be made known on the day of sale.

DAILY SENTINEL.

FRIDAY, MAY 29, 1868.

VOICES CALLING.

"Oh hush!" she whispered, "I hear them speaking, Voices calling upon the air;"
And while she listened, the pale light glistened,
And lay, and floated upon her hair.
"Oh no!" they answered, "we hear no speaking.
We hear no voices upon the breeze;
It must be only the night wind lonely
That sighs and whispers among the trees."

"Oh hush!" she murmured, "I hear them singing—Singing the songs that I used to know;"
And while she listened the tear drops glistened,
And through long lashes began to flow.
"Oh no!" they answered, "we hear no singing
We hear no voices singing so;
'Tis but the waking of sea waves breaking
Upon the shingle far below."

"Oh, hush!" she whispered, "I hear them calling.
Sweet voices of the long ago;"
And while she listened the long light glistened,
And lay on her sweet face, white as snow.
"Oh no!" they murmured, "she wanders wildly,
We hear no voices on the breeze;
She's listening only to night winds lonely
That sigh and whisper among the trees."

"Hush! hush!" they answer, while dews were falling,
While dead leaves rustled through the air,
And while they shimmered the pale light glimmered
On a face and form like the angels fair.
"Oh, pray!" they whispered, "our love is dying,
Her voice is fainting across the sea;"
And while they listened, the far dawn glistened,
Oh God! her morning breaks with Thee.

Fairy Stories for Little Folks.

THE SELF-WILLED PRINCESS.

BY AN OLD FASHIONED FELLOW.

There was once a princess who had a proud and violent temper, and who made everybody about her unhappy whenever she failed in anything she undertook, or met the least obstacle. Her fairy grandmother reproved her without success.

At last, one day, the fairy said to her in a fit of anger,

"Very well, Princess; since instruction has no effect on you, I decree that henceforward you shall succeed in whatever you undertake."

"I ask nothing more, answered the Princess, laughing loudly; and to begin with, I mean now to open that mysterious black box, into which my father has never permitted me to look."

So saying, she went to the mantle, and was taking down her father's golden key, when her father entered the room.

"What are you doing with my key?" he asked, angrily.

"I am going to open your black box," answered the Princess, boldly.

The king, on hearing this, was very angry; but when he attempted to reprove the Princess, for some mysterious reason he could not say a word; and the Princess, perceiving that the fairy's spell was working, opened the box before his eyes.

Something sprang out and gave her a furious box on the ear.

"Ah, daughter, you have ruined us all!" said the father in a lamentable voice. This is the hideous goblin whom I contrived to shut up here, and whom you have now released."

The Princess for a moment, knew not what to say, for she had never seen such a hideous creature as the little black figure perched on the box; but recollecting the fairy's decree:

"I am to have success in whatever I undertake," said she. "So goblin get back into your box."

"With pleasure!" answered the horrible creature; and jumping into the box the lid snapped; but he had taken something with him; what do you think it was? Why, the King, the court, the palace, everything but the Princess. How he had done it, the Princess could not tell, but they were all gone and she was alone.

Not knowing what to do, she began to walk on, she hardly knew where, till it grew cold and dark, when she came to a little house all by itself.

"Let me in," said the Princess, knocking; but she heard nothing. Then she knocked again; but still there was no answer.

"I will enter" said the Princess to herself; and as she said that the door flew open.—There was a fire on the hearth, and near it sat an old woman.

"You are welcome," said the old woman. "You must now bake my bread and spin my flax for me."

So the Princess rolled up her sleeves and began to knead the old woman's dough and spin her flax. She rose early in the morning and went to bed late at night, for there was so much bread to bake and flax to spin that she had no time to rest. At last, she made up her mind to run away; but she could not find neither door or window. She was not discouraged, however, for she thought I am always to succeed; and by-and-by she spied a little step.

"We will see where this leads to," she thought.

So she went up, and there was another.—She went up that and found another and another. In this way she walked for a whole week, till she began to think that she was going up a mountain. Finally she came to a prodigious step. She tried to get up, and then she tried again, and, as usual, "I will succeed!" she said to herself. At the same moment she stepped up, and found herself right on the tip end of the horn of the new moon. Oh, then she was frightened.

"Fairy, fairy, save me!" she cried. "The more I succeed the worse I am."

"I am glad you have found that out!"—answered the fairy, picking her up and carrying her back to the King, her father, who was not in goblin's box after all. And let us hope, after this, that our Princess was not quite so fond of her own way.

LOVE IS ENDURING.

If the trial comes direct from God, it is enough. It is correction. It is his heavenly Farther's Hand, and with Luther, the disciple cries: "Strike, Lord, strike, But O! do not forsake me." If the trial come from christian brethren, till it be seven fold seventy times repeated, love to Jesus demands forgiveness. If it come from worldly men, it is the occasion for that magnanimity which recompenses evil with good. And in every case it is an opportunity for following the Saviour whom sufferings made perfect. That Saviour never loved the Father more intensely than when the Father's face was hid, and the bitter cup proclaimed his justice, and his truth severe.—One denied him and all the disciples forsook him; but Jesus prayed for Peter, while Peter was cursing; and his love followed the rest, even when they were running away. Jerusalem killed him; but in foresight of the guilty deed it was over Jerusalem that Jesus wept; and when the deed was done, in publishing pardon and the peace of God, it was at Jerusalem that the evangelists were directed to begin.

"Jabe, what are they trying the President for?" "Cruelty to animals, boss."—"Cruelty to animals?" "Yes, boss, he tried to kick a dirty dog out of the War Office, and all the puppies in the country are barking at him."

"I feel too lazy to work," said a loafer, "and I have no time to play, so I'll go to bed and split the difference."

HINTS TO TATTLERS.—The heights and recesses of Mount Taurus are said to be infested by eagles, who are never better pleased than when they can pick the bones of a crane. Cranes are prone to cackle and make a noise, (Isa. xxxviii, 14.) and particularly so while they are flying. The sound of their voices arouses the eagles, who spring at the signal, and often make the talkative travellers pay dearly for their imprudent chattering. The older and more experienced cranes, sensible of their besetting foible, and the peril to which it exposes them, take care, before venturing on the wing, to arm themselves with a stone, large enough to fill the cavity of their mouths, and consequently to impose unavoidable silence on their tongue, and thus they escape the danger. Reader, hast thou an unruly tongue? Learn a lesson from the older cranes, and to bridle thy tongue by watchfulness and prayer, that thou mayest say with the Psalmist, who had doubtless witnessed, and perhaps felt, the infirmity of which we have been speaking. "I said, I will take heed to my way, that I sin not with my tongue."

THE CHAPEL IN THE HEART.—In your heart make frequent colliquies, or short discoursing, with God and thy own soul.—Every return of the heart in these intercourses is a going to him, an appearing in his presence, and in representing him present to thy spirit and to thy necessity. This was long since called by a spiritual person "a building to God a chapel in our heart." It reconciles Martha's employment with Mary's devotion, charity and religion, the necessities of our calling and the employment of devotion; for thus, in the midst of the works of your trade, you may retire into your chapel—the heart—and converse with God by frequent addresses and returns.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell,
Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession,) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U S Commissioner, must accompany the petition and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. "In other words the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to us, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value ($500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their homes and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and, if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case those, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.

THE WEEKLY SUN.

THE CIRCULATION OF THE "WEEKLY SUN," always very large, has of late so increased that it may be called universal. It is shedding its light for all, in all sections—North, East, South and West. Its intercourse with the South, which was necessarily interrupted during the war, has been again resumed, and the evidences of public appreciation from that quarter are multiplying every day. When honest efforts are put forth, as in the "Weekly Sun," to meet the demand for a reliable weekly record of news and an entertaining vehicle of light literature, which, while it instructs and pleases, aims to promote virtue as well as intelligence and to discourage every line of an impure and immoral tendency, it is cheering to receive such evidences of public appreciation as are coming to us from all parts of the country.
